To whom it may concern,

As the former CEO of the Michelangelo Experience, I contracted with Exhibit and Display Consultants to help us design build and manage the day to day operations for this traveling exhibit. I feel that this is one of the most important art exhibitions of our time and many candidates were considered.

We were extremely impressed with Brett's personal dedication to the project. He not only helped us to find creative and logistical suppliers for the project as required, but also sourced critical background materials and facts that helped us to secure investors and obtain early financing for the project.

On a more personal note, Brett is a hardworking, thoughtful person, who is passionate and dedicated to any project that he takes on. He is not afraid to state his opinion, but does so in a way that fits in well with any management team. Brett has grown to be a good friend and reliable source of information, and I appreciate having had the chance to work with him on this project.

I recommend Brett and the EDC team for work on any creative, live marketing project.
